

New LDS Choir Music

By Jonathan Whitcomb

I wrote “Come to Christ” over a period of weeks, in the middle of 2022, culminating in version #121, with most of the text taken from (or modified from) the Book of Mormon:

*Press forward, feast on the word of Christ;
Behold you shall have eternal life.
Hold to the rod: the word of God;
Behold the tree of the love of God.*

*We like sheep had gone astray,
to turn to wander far away.
Turn again. Turn to God.*

*Behold my Son, my Beloved Son:
Come unto Him for eternal life.
Behold His hands, his feet and side:
For you he bled and died.*

*Turn to Him. Come unto Christ.
Come to Him.*

The musical score is for the hymn "Come to Him". It is written for voice and piano. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into three systems. The first system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The third system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Turn to Him, Come on to Christ, Come to Him." The tempo is marked "Andante". The dynamics are marked f (forte), ff (fortissimo), p (piano), and mp (mezzo-piano). The score is for a four-part setting, with the vocal parts and piano accompaniment.

Come to Christ

Press forward: Feast on the word of Christ.
Behold you shall have eternal life.
Hold to the rod: the word of God.
Behold the tree of the love of God

We like sheep had gone astray,
to turn to wander far away.
Turn again. Turn to God.

Behold my Son, my Beloved Son,
Come unto Him for eternal life.
Behold His hands, His feet and side;
For you He died and died.

Turn to Him. Come unto Christ.
Come to Him.

Do you believe it possible for a person who has passed away to contact us or at least to influence those of us who are still living in mortality? I have not the slightest doubt that some of them do help us in a number of subtle ways, at least on occasion.

*They heard His voice, a voice so mild.
It pierced them through and made their souls to quake.
They saw Him come, a man in white,
The Savior, who had suffered for their sake. . . .*
